PART 1: READING COMPREHENSION (15 points)

Read the following text and answer the questions in exercises I and II.

Hi, Fred!

It's been a while since we have been in touch. How has your semester been?

I wanted to send you an email to let you know how things have been going during my semester abroad here in Málaga, Spain. I've already been here for six weeks, and I feel like I am finally adapting to the culture. I'm also speaking the language more fluently.

I arrived during the first week of September. The weather here is very nice. Even though it's October, it's still rather sunny and warm. In fact, I went to the beach and swam in the Mediterranean Sea earlier today.

I am living with a very welcoming host family. I have my own private bedroom, but we eat breakfast, lunch, and dinner together. On Sundays, we eat a big home-cooked paella for lunch. In Spain, lunch is usually the biggest meal of the day. It's also very common for the people to take a midday nap right after a big meal. Actually, I have just woken up from my nap!

On weekdays, I take classes at the local university. There, I met several native Spanish speakers. They are all very kind and patient with me. At first, I had problems understanding their Spanish, but now I follow most of the conversations. They say that my Spanish has improved a lot since we first met. Now, I am more confident when I use the language in other places like stores and restaurants.

I am so glad that I decided to spend the semester here in Spain. We have a long weekend coming up, so a group of my friends and I are going to travel to Paris for four days. Then, in a month's time, I'll probably visit London and Berlin with my cousins. It's so easy and inexpensive to travel internationally in Europe. I love it!

I look forward to hearing from you soon. Like I said, don't hesitate to stay in touch more often. Perhaps you could even come to visit! What do you think?

Best wishes,

Patrick
